Whether they come to fish, splash, hike, cycle, or just lie under the sun, summer activities abound – from outdoor activities, music events, art shows, and community festivals to classic boat and car exhibits, seaplane shows, holiday parades, fireworks, and even an old-fashioned county fair.

This is Lake County in the summer – where the sun shines brightly overhead, highlighting the endless adventures that beckon you to come and explore.

With fall comes the harvest – a time for farmers to gather their crops and celebrate the season's yield, and a time for the community to gather with family and friends to celebrate Lake County's agricultural heritage.

Lovely autumn days and harvest-related festivals entice people from all over Lake County and beyond to admire colorful vineyard and orchard tapestries, and to savor the flavors of fall in local premium pears, walnuts, and award-winning wines. As the air gets crisper and cooler, bracing outdoor activities of all kinds begin to call...

Snow-capped peaks frame distant views, and cabins glow with the warmth of cozy winter fires. Stargazers delight in the clear, dark winter skies.

Seasonal chills are warmed by a strong sense of community as main streets bustle with locals and visitors strolling shops and craft fairs, gathering for holiday tree lightings, light parades, and annual festivals.

Lake County's primary business and enterprise sectors include wine and agriculture, education, hospitality and resorts, recreation and tourism, health care services, retail, senior housing, and green energy.

In 2018 all the jurisdictions of Lake County adopted an updated Strategic Economic Development Plan (The County of Lake, the City of Clearlake, The City of Lakeport) conducted through the Lake County Economic Development Corporation along with Work Force Alliance North Bay and we're out for business.

Some action items identified in that report and acted upon throughout 2019 were improvements to Lampson Field, the county's only airport; proactively pursue expansion of Broadband services throughout the entire County in the interests of attracting new Internet based businesses and community safety. Actively working on improvements to workforce readiness in hospitality services and other business arenas. A Tourism Improvement District (TID) was created in November 2018 with hospitality stakeholders forming a non-profit organization for the purpose of attracting visitors and new businesses to Lake County.

Despite challenges presented by fires, County and City officials are committed to fostering a favorable environment for businesses; maintaining a high quality of life for residents; and providing enjoyable amenities for visitors. Those considering moving here and opening a business will find local government is eager to assist and be personally available to meet with developers, business owners, and entrepreneurs to facilitate quality development and encourage business growth. #### CTAS MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

As you travel throughout our great county, you are likely to see an abundance of people wearing a gold or silver star. Who are these folks and what's with the pins? These pins are worn by the Lake County Certified Tourism Ambassadors (CTAs) and they are here to help promote our county and bring positive and supportive enthusiasm to everyone they touch.

The Certified Tourism Ambassador program is an internationally recognized program created to increase tourism by "Enhancing the Visitor Experience"™. Each Ambassador has gone through an accredited certification, lead by local Trainers to learn about the rich history of our county, as well as, the many resources available to help everyone who visits Lake County, come away with a memorable and positive experience.

This county wide program is sponsored by the Lake County Chamber of Commerce and facilitated by local volunteers who believe in Lake County and what it has to offer our visitors. You'll find the CTAs at many local events and venues acting as walking and talking information centers, helping both locals and tourists find a delicious meal, points of interest, as well as answering the eternal question, "What is there to do in Lake County?".

If in your travels you happen to spot someone wearing the CTA Star, stop them and say hello. CTAs are happy to chat and help make your visit a memorable experience. If you're local, ask how you can become a Lake County Star!

WELCOME TO LAKE COUNTY

GEOLOGY

Geologists have determined that Clear Lake is the oldest lake in the New World. Though lakes and marshes have existed here for 2.5 million years, the lake, as we know it today, is at least 500,000 years old. During that long history, its outlet has changed from flowing east toward the Sacramento River and west to the Russian River. The most recent change occurred about 12,000 years ago when the southern and eastern arms of the lake deepened, causing the outlet to shift to the east.

Mount Konocti rises above Clear Lake and is the most prominent volcano in the Clear Lake Volcanic Field at 4,299 feet. The lake basin was created and is partly maintained as a result of this volcano; the Earth's crust slowly sinks to compensate for the magma that flowed out of this volcano between 600,000 and 300,000 years ago. The lake basin is sinking at about 1/4" each year.

NATIVE PEOPLES

The ancestors of Lake County's Pomo and Wappo speaking people arrived in the area at least 20,000 and 14,000 years ago (that is 12,000 years before the Egyptian civilization). Their languages belong to the two oldest language families in the New World. Some of the current reservations are located on the sites of the ancient villages of their ancestors. More recently, the Lake Miwok moved into the area at the south end of Clear Lake.

The Native population relied on at least 2,000 different plants, fish and animals; many (such as Grebe, and Bald and Golden eagles) were considered sacred and not hunted. Tule reeds were used for house and boat construction, clothing, and food. Willow, sedge, and redbud were used for basket making; special gift baskets were often decorated with beads and feathers.

They were the first farmers in the county, collecting and processing grain crops by 8,000 years ago. By 6,000 years ago they were living in "orchards" of oak trees that provided acorns, a storable food source. With this abundance, there was no need for warfare and all groups lived together peaceably.

Lake County's Native people were one of the wealthiest and most influential groups in California. They controlled the obsidian that was traded and used for making tools all over California, they used shell (traded from the Pacific Coast) to manufacture beads that served as currency in California's prehistoric economy, and they controlled access along a main trade route between the coast and the central valley.

Researchers estimate Lake County's prehistoric population at between 9,000- 12,000 before European arrival, at which time there were 31 major villages around the Clear Lake shoreline representing 11 distinct tribes. In the late 1500s European diseases swept through the Americas, eliminating roughly one half of Lake County's Native population. Enslavement and mistreatment by the Spanish missions, Mexican and early European settlers during the 1800s further reduced the Native population to about 450 by 1900.

Today, seven Pomo tribes still inhabit the County. Many traditional cultural ways have been handed down through generations and are still practiced by some of the families. Four of these tribes operate casinos.

PIONEERS

In 1839, Salvador Vallejo received Spanish land grants in the areas from Upper Lake to Big Valley, and brought in large herds of horses and cattle. In 1847 he sold his lands to Andrew Kelsey and Charles Stone. By the mid-1850s, American and European pioneer families were making their homes in Lake County, planting orchards and tending cattle ranches and farms. Mines yielded guicksilver and borax. Privately owned toll roads crossed the mountains. bringing more people, who built stores, banks, churches, saloons, and other businesses, forming communities in the hills and around Clear Lake.

The act for combining portions of Napa, Mendocino, and Colusa counties to form Lake County was approved by the California Governor on May 20, 1861, with Lakeport as the County Seat. The first courthouse, a wooden structure built in 1861, burned in 1867. It was replaced by a concrete-covered brick courthouse, completed in 1871, the first California courthouse listed in the National Register of Historic Buildings, and now home to the Lake County Historic Courthouse Museum.

FARMERS

Read about Lake County's agricultural history on pages 26.

TOURISTS

Imagine...ferrying four hours by boat across the San Francisco Bay to Vallejo, hopping on a train to Calistoga, riding by stagecoach over Mt. St. Helena to Middletown, continuing up over Cobb Mountain or on to Lower Lakethen taking a steamer ferry ride across Clear Lake to your final destination! That's what it took to visit Lake County in 1874.

Although Lake County never acquired a railroad system, a powerful force pulled in tons of long-distance travelers: the mineral springs. Thought to possess medicinal virtues and heal the physically. mentally, and emotionally ill, visitors traveled for entire days to reach the revered springs, which also doubled as "pleasure palaces" for many.

Hotels and retreats were built at a feverish pace throughout the region. By the 1880s, the hills were dotted with luxurious resorts built around mineral springs. Wealthy travelers from San Francisco and other parts of the world frequented the resorts, traveling to "take the waters," enjoy nature, and indulge in lavish parties at these establishments.

Popular resorts of the times included Bartlett, Highland, Harbin, Pearson, Seigler, Adams, and Anderson Springs.

The 1906 earthquake caused many of the hot springs to stop or slow down; in the years that followed, fires destroyed most of the historic resorts that remained, while others were torn down.

Today, tourists escaping the urban world still enjoy unspoiled scenic beauty and a variety of activities in Lake County.

The Ely Stage Stop near Kelseyville dates back to the 1880s and, over the years, served as a stagecoach stop, hotel, post office, general store, and at one point, a gas station, and a boys home before taking on its current role as a historical and community center.

The original building was part of the vast S-Bar-S Ranch homestead. In 2007, through a generous donation by Beckstoffer Vineyards, the structure was moved to another part of the former ranch and inspired the vision for the Ely Stage Stop & Country Museum.

After careful restoration and ongoing preservation, it opened in 2011 to offer visitors an opportunity to learn about Lake County's heritage with a reconstructed old barn, farm equipment displays, agricultural demonstrations, interpretive and living history exhibits. A working blacksmith shop is currently under construction.

On the first Sunday of every month, there is a Fiddlers' Jam from 12 noon-2pm in the barn. There is plenty of toe tapping music, plus food and beverages. Special Marketplaces with craft vendors occur on the grounds in May; the holiday Marketplace in December fills up the gaily decorated barn.

Spring events will be Daffodils in Bloom and the Early Days Gas Engine and Tractor show in June.

The Ely Stage Stop & Country Museum, a joint project of the County of Lake and the Lake County Historical Society, is available for rent for special events and business meetings.

CLEAR LAKE... A NATURAL TREASURE

Clear Lake is the largest natural freshwater lake in California, with 68 square miles of surface area, more than 100 miles of shoreline, and an average depth of 28 feet.

Clear Lake is one of the oldest lakes in the world at 2.2 million years old. The Oaks Arm and Lower Arm were marshy areas until the basin deepened about 12,000 years ago.

Clear Lake lies in a broad basin in the Coast Ranges of Northern California. A vast watershed, relatively shallow depth, and temperate climate keep Clear Lake's water warm and rich in nutrients, making it highly productive, or eutrophic. Studies indicate that Clear Lake has been eutrophic - providing abundant food for fish and wildlife – since the last Ice Age, more than 10,000 years ago.

The Clear Lake Basin is home to vearround populations of ducks, pelicans, grebes, herons, egrets, osprey, and winter populations of bald eagles. The Basin also supports abundant populations of deer, bears, mountain lions, raccoons, and other animals.

Archaeological evidence indicates humans have lived in the Clear Lake region for at least 20,000 years.

The Middle Creek Flood Damage Reduction and Ecosystem Restoration Project is reconnecting more than 1,650 acres of former wetland and floodplain to Clear Lake. When complete, the project will eliminate substandard levees, restore natural habitat, and ultimately improve water quality with the increased wetlands that will once again act as a vast nutrient filter for water entering the lake from Middle and Scotts creeks via Rodman Slough.

Located a little more than 100 miles north of San Francisco, Clear Lake played an indispensable military role during the seaplanes' heyday of WWII and the early

The Geysers, the largest geothermal energy complex in the world, is nestled in the mountains between Lake and Sonoma Counties. Fueled by more than 350 steam wells, its 15 power plants generate 850 megawatts of clean, renewable base load electricity.

THE GEYSERS: A GEOTHERMAL POWERHOUSE

The Geysers is a truly remarkable place with a rich history. Native Americans, the first known inhabitants of this region, visited the thermal areas for healing and ceremonial importance. When rediscovered in the 1840s, The Geysers soon became a world famous tourist destination. Although there are no actual geysers at the wonderinspiring region, the inaccurate name stuck. Over the past 59 years, The Geysers has emerged as the world's leader in sustainable geothermal power. Operating since 1960, today at The Geysers steam from deep beneath the earth's surface is harnessed from steam wells, some deeper than two miles. Once the steam reaches the surface. it is piped overland to a network of interconnected power plants, where it spins conventional steam turbines that drive generators to produce clean, reliable electricity for California.

BOATING AND FISHING MAPS

Whether they come for the fish or the splash, Clear Lake is a haven for boating enthusiasts. The largest natural freshwater lake in California, Clear Lake's shores are lined with boat launches—most are free to the public. From paddle to pontoon boats, wakeboards to wave runners, rentals are available at many businesses around Clear Lake (see page 20). One of the most popular places for launching a boat is Clear Lake State Park, which features a boat ramp, marina, swim beach, lakeside camping, hiking trails, a visitor center, and a picnic area for day use.

The lake is brimming with many species of fish, including catfish, carp, crappie, and bluegill, and most notably, bass. In fact, two-thirds of the fish caught are largemouth bass. Major national bass tournament tours make a stop here; the average tournament-winning weight can be more than 30 pounds, a weight unmatched by any other lake in the nation. Clear Lake has earned a reputation for being home to "monster bass," and those in the know refer to Clear Lake as the "Bass Capital of the West." Even organizations like U.S. Bass, Cal Bass, and Western Bass agree that Clear Lake is the "number one bass lake in the nation."

Northwest of Clear Lake, fishing opportunities abound in the cold, clear waters of Blue Lakes, which has rainbow trout, catfish, bluegill, and black bass; no boat may exceed 5 mph, making the lakes perfect for kayaks, canoes, paddleboats, or a quiet day of fishing or swimming. Lake Pillsbury,* nestled in the middle of the Mendocino National Forest due north of Clear Lake and surrounded by mountains, has black bass, pumpkinseed sunfish, and rainbow trout; all types of boats and lake activities are welcome. Remote and peaceful Indian Valley Reservoir,* to the northeast, where boats are required to stay below 10 mph, has rainbow trout, black bass, catfish, kokanee, and crappie. Southwest of Clear Lake, the North Fork of Cache Creek has rainbow trout. Due south, Highland Springs Reservoir has catfish, black bass, crappie, and bluegill, and any boat without a gas-powered motor is welcome; visitors also can hike, play disc golf or horseshoes, or enjoy a picnic in the area's oak woodland and brushy terrain.

Several businesses around Lake County offer fishing licenses and supplies, including a variety of bait and tackle. Professional fishing guides offer instruction year-round, as well as gear, sightseeing and hunting tours, nature photography opportunities, and more.

PROTECT OUR WATERS-STOP AQUATIC HITCHHIKERS!

Love to spend time on the water? Help protect Lake County's beautiful lakes and creeks by preventing the spread of harmful plants, animals, and other organisms, such as Quagga and Zebra Mussels. These aquatic nuisance species can hitch a ride on boats, clothing, gear, and other items used in the water and then spread to other bodies of water. If the conditions are right, these introduced species can become established and create drastic results.

Follow these simple procedures each time you leave the water:

- Remove any visible mud, plants, fish, or animals before transporting equipment.
- Eliminate all water from equipment before transporting.
- CLEAN, DRAIN, AND DRY anything that came in contact with water or mud (boats, trailers, equipment, clothing, dogs, etc.).
- Never release plants, fish, or animals into a body of water unless they came out of that body of water.

AGRICULTURE'S RICH HERITAGE

Lake County has deep roots in agriculture dating back 6,000 years when the Native people tended and pruned "orchards" of oak trees throughout the valleys. Settlers began planting vineyards in the 1850s, which flourished in the Mediterranean microclimates and soil rich in volcanic ash. In 1888, British actress Lillie Langtry purchased 4,190 acres in the Guenoc Valley, which had been planted with vineyards in 1854. She brought her own winemaker, introducing her first vintage in 1891.

By 1884, Lake County had nearly 600 acres of vineyards, but Prohibition (1920–1933) swiftly ended a budding internationallyrecognized wine industry. Ranchers pulled out grapevines and replanted with walnut, pear, and other fruits.

Today, this rural landscape offers a rich tapestry of patterns and colors in its fields, orchards, and vineyards, continuing a heritage of farming and agricultural production that is shared graciously through agritourism, including family farm stands, seasonal farmers' markets, farm and ranch tours, stables, bed-and-breakfast farm stays, agricultural festivals, wildflower tours, vineyard tours, wine tasting rooms, parks and nature hikes, bird watching, and more.

Lake County's high elevation, distinct volcanic soils, and climate hot summers and cool winters. clean air, and lots of sunshine provide ideal growing conditions for dozens of varietals of flavorful winegrapes and many types of succulent pears including the area's famous Mountain Bartletts. Several varieties of walnuts and olives thrive. and countless other farm-fresh delights can be discovered at local farm stands and farmers' markets, as well as at several local grocers and wine tasting rooms.

HIGH-ELEVATION WINE COUNTRY

Today, Lake County's winegrape industry is recognized for the superb character and quality of its high-elevation winegrapes and wines. The local industry is made up of a cadré of experienced grape growers who remain focused on planting the right varietals in the right locations and employing sustainable viticultural practices that suit the region's mountain climate; innovative winemakers who are committed to quality and carefully crafting wines that fully express the area's distinct terroir; professional industry groups that are leading the way with research and education in areas such as high-elevation viticulture and enology; and friendly tasting room hosts who are both knowledgeable and welcoming.

NOTE All telephone numbers are area code (707) unless otherwise listed.

INTENSITY OF PLACE

Known as the Mountains of the North Coast, Lake County is located at the heart of Northern California's Coastal Range where the Mayacamas and Vaca mountain ranges join and rise and is part of the prestigious North Coast appellation that also includes Napa and Sonoma. The volcanic and tectonic forces that created Lake County's stunning geologic landscape also created an astounding array of soils, from rocky volcanic highlands to mountain valleys lined with gravelly river courses.

Approximately 10,000 acres of vineyards grace the area's hillsides, valleys, terraces, and mountain ridges, with the majority of Lake County vineyards at 1,300 feet and above. Lake County's high-elevation vineyards receive higher ultraviolet light levels, which foster thick grape skins and produce concentrated flavors, and dramatic day-to-night temperature swings, which retain the needed acidity to deliver both intensity and balance in the wines.

In this wine region where the elevation is higher, the summers are drier, and the winters are colder than in neighboring regions, vines endure less pest and mildew pressure, which is why Lake County ranks among the lowest in terms of pesticide use among California wine regions.

Within Lake County, seven distinct American Viticultural Areas (AVA) exist: Clear Lake, Benmore Valley, Big Valley District-Lake County, Guenoc Valley, High Valley, Kelsey Bench-Lake County and Red Hills Lake County.

WINES OF COMPELLING CHARACTER

Lake County is home to more than 30 wineries and more than 200 different wine brands use its distinct winegrapes.

The area's two dominant winegrape varieties are Sauvignon Blanc and Cabernet Sauvignon. Lake County is known as a prime growing region for quality California Sauvignon Blanc as the area's growing conditions in valleys and along hillsides offer winemakers a wide range of stylistic choices – from round and soft to lean and sharp – that showcase the range of Sauvignon Blanc flavors... zingy citrus, crisp apple, lush melon, tropical pineapple, dry minerality, green herbs, fresh-cut grass.

The region also has garnered significant attention for producing Cabernet Sauvignon grapes of compelling character with concentrated flavors and higher phenolic components due to thicker grape skins – prime planting areas include volcanic soils on ridges and hillsides that contain fragments of shiny black obsidian and other rocks and minerals, as well as gravelly alluvial soils along streambeds that course through benchland and valleys.

In addition to Sauvignon Blanc and Cabernet Sauvignon, many other winegrape varieties do well including Barbera, Chardonnay, Grenache, Merlot, Petite Sirah, Riesling, Syrah, Tempranillo, Viognier and Zinfandel.

PEAR HERITAGE

The very first pears were planted here in the 1880s. Great-grandfather of Myron Holdenried (founder of Wildhurst Vineyards), Louis Henderson planted pears in 1890 and those orchards are still in production today, farmed by Myron's cousin Diane Henderson. Thomas Porteus is credited for planting the first commercial orchard in Lake County in the late 1800s, four acres in Big Valley. L.P. Clendenin in Scotts Valley, J.B. Laughlin and George Akers of Kelseyville, and J.W. Annette of Finley followed his lead, and by 1919, 700 acres of pears were planted in the county. In the early 1920s, the California Packing Company was established and operated the largest dry yard in the world in Kelseyville, which today is the site of Adobe Creek Packing Company. Until after World War I, early fruit was dried and primarily shipped to Europe where food was desperately needed. In the mid-1920s, Europe required a tariff on imported foods just as boxing fresh fruit became the norm. While most boxed fruit was shipped by train, Lake County-which has never had a rail system—had to haul pears by truck over the Hopland grade or to Ukiah. Throughout the 20th century, Kelseyville was revered as the "pear capital of the world." In 1999 alone, 85,000 tons of pears were processed in Lake County most in Kelseyville. The Lake County Pear Association was established in 2005 and works to promote the many varieties of celebrates its special pears and agricultural history and heritage each year with the Kelseyville Pear Festival—a daylong event that summons thousands.

Pear Champagne

The Lady of the Lake label was originally a label on Lake County pear boxes and featured the "Lady of the Lake" holding a pear in her palm. In 2004, Mt. Konocti Growers took it upon themselves to update history by combining the area's two best agricultural assets: pears and wine. Lady of the Lake Sparkling Pear Wine uses the nostalgic label, replacing the lady's pear with a champagne glass.

Lake County's wine industry, like other North Coast areas, got off to a rapid start in the 1870s, and many today proclaim Lake County to be one of California's best kept secrets. What happened in between? By 1884, Lake County's growing industry had 600 acres of winegrapes. Settlers from many parts of Europe and the United States were bringing their viticulture and winemaking expertise to the county. Notable arrivals in the 1880s included Serranus C. Hastings, founder of Hastings Law School, and Lillie Langtry, famous British actress and socialite. Each established a vineyard and winery; Langtry purchased 4,190 acres in Guenoc Valley near Middletown, which included vineyards that had been planted in 1854. She brought her own winemaker, establishing the Guenoc & Langtry Estate Winery with their first vintage in 1891. Today the winery is known as Langtry Estate & Vineyards. Young Harvard graduate Charles M. Hammond won best exhibit for dry white and red wines at the 1893 World Exposition in Chicago with wine produced at his Lake County vineyard, earning Lake County a solid reputation for producing some of the world's greatest wines.

Several challenges faced the local wine industry. Despite concerted local efforts, a rail link to the county was never established. Since the 1870s, Lake County had been a popular tourist destination with visitors flocking to its many mineral springs resorts. However, tourism went into decline after the 1906 San Francisco earthquake and with it, part of the local market for wine. The last blow to Lake County's wine industry came with the onset of Prohibition in 1920 as vineyards throughout the county were torn out and replaced by pear and walnut orchards. In the 1960s Lake County farmers began to plant vineyards again. By 1990, 2,700 acres of grapes were planted in the county. In 1991, the Lake County winegrape growers formed the Lake County Winegrape Commission with the objective of increasing the quality, price, and recognition of Lake County winegrapes.

Lake County has since become known as a wine region that produces winegrapes of compelling character with winemakers from across the North Coast recognizing the quality, consistency, and flavor profiles that Lake County grapes deliver to their finished wines. Vineyard acreage in Lake County has continued its steady growth from approximately 5,400 acres in 2002 to 9,445 acres today.

In 2007, Lake County vintners got together to form the Lake County Winery Association to market their wines and promote the wine region as a visitor destination.

The number of wineries in the county also continues to grow – from just four in 1995 to almost 40 in 2019. So come discover Lake County... visitors find knowledgeable growers and winemakers, welcoming tasting rooms, spectacularly scenic high-elevation vineyards, and of course, award-winning wines.

THE LAKE COUNTY QUILT TRAIL

Visitors can explore the art and agricultural heritage of Lake County by following the Lake County Quilt Trail – the first quilt trail in the state of California. A project of the Kelseyville Pear Festival that began in 2010, the Lake County Quilt Trail celebrates classic American folk art on display in rural, agricultural communities.

Today, more than 125 vibrantly colored quilt blocks adorn the area's barns, homes, tasting rooms, and other historic and agricultural buildings. An all-volunteer team creates each of the 4x4 foot squares with a unique quilt block pattern selected to illustrate the history of the building, honor family history, or pay tribute to the generational history of beautiful guilts.

The Lake County Quilt Trail builds on a concept that began in Ohio in 2001. The American Quilt Trail has grown to include over 3,000 barn quilts across 40 states and Canada. Experience our guilt blocks on our website: www.lakecountyquilttrail.com

"Hannah is knowledgeable, dependable, and fun to work with. As first time homebuyers, she went above and beyond to educate my husband and I. We would highly recommend calling her as you will not be sorry!"

"I worked with Hannah from out of state the entire time. She listed the house, oversaw repairs, coordinated everything. We received and excepted an offer over asking and completed escrow in 30 days. You will never find a better, hard working and responsive to all questions Realtor than you will in Hannah. She is awesome, dealing with both myself and my sister who lived in another state. We still closed and completed everything very fast."

LAKE COUNTY RESOURCES

TRANSPORTATION

DRIVING DIRECTIONS

From the Sacramento Valley

From Interstate 5 at Williams, travel west onto Highway 20 (the Tahoe-Pacific Heritage Corridor). The drive from Sacramento is just over 100 miles and takes about two hours.

From Alameda, Contra Costa, Solano, and Napa counties

Take Highway 29 through Calistoga and over Mt. St. Helena into Middletown. From there, you may choose to turn on Highway 175 over Cobb Mountain ending in the Kelseyville area; or continue on Highway 29 to its intersection with Highway 53 at Lower Lake. Turn left on Highway 29 for Kelseyville and Lakeport. Continue north on Highway 53 for the city of Clearlake, and beyond to Highway 20, Clearlake Oaks, and the north shore.

From San Francisco, Marin, Sonoma, and Mendocino counties

Take Highway 101 north; at Hopland, take Highway 175 for 19 miles to Lakeport, or skip the twists and turns of Highway 175 by continuing north on Highway 101 and then taking Highway 20 east, just north of Ukiah.

From small lakes to 44,000 acres of Clear Lake Come. Relax. Slow down. Breathe. Get away. It's so close. Come visit or come to stay. Whether you're here for a weekend, or the rest of your life, the many vibrant communities of Lake County are waiting to be discovered. Let us be your guide. Now imagine living in the woods, or on the lake, or over a babbling stream. Commute to work, or work at home. Find community among people who, like you, have not only found their paradise – but decided to live here. Lake County is located about equidistance between the northwest coast of California, the state capital of Sacramento, the wine country of Sonoma, Napa, and Mendocino counties, and the San Francisco Bay area.

Lake County covers 1,327 square miles, at elevations ranging from 1,099 to 7,056 feet above sea level. Its climate is temperate, yet it still offers the beauty of all four seasons, and its terrain varies from thickly forested mountains, to oak-studded rolling grasslands and hills, to pristine shady streamside valleys, to lakeside coves and peninsulas. The communities here are just as varied as the terrain. There are two incorporated cities, the county seat of Lakeport on the western shore of Clear Lake, and the City of Clearlake on the eastern shore. Around the lake and scattered throughout the hills and valleys are a myriad of small communities, some of which began as spas, resorts, and vacation getaway destinations. Other communities began as ranching or farming centers, steamboat landings, postal stations, mining centers, or stagecoach stops. Today these communities reflect their varied heritages and offer a wide range of choices of places to visit, to do business, and to live. Turn the page and learn more about the neighborhoods of Lake County.

Stretching along the eastern shore of Clear Lake, the City of Clearlake was incorporated in 1980. Known as the "Highlands" prior to incorporation, the city meanders over hills throughout its 10.5 square miles. Development of the area began in 1922 and became popular as a tourist destination due to its incredible shoreline.

Within the city are three lakefront parks including Austin Park, Highlands Park, and Redbud Park, each with its own special amenities: Redbud Park's free use of the county's best launching facilities and plenty of parking make it popular with boaters, anglers, and bass tournaments alike. Clearlake boasts the only public sand beaches along the lakefront at Austin Park and at Highlands Park. Austin Park has a beautiful stretch of beach with a large playground on one side of Lakeshore Drive, while the main part of the park is currently being completely renovated, in May of 2020 many new amenities will be available, including bandstand and concert venue, new children's play area, dog park, etc. A new waterfront trail is also "coming soon" to the area. Highlands Park is the home of the Clear Lake Chamber of Commerce/Visitor Information Center. Drop in for maps, tips, and other friendly information about things to do, lodging or restaurants in the area. Highlands Park is also a popular local fishing spot off the point.

Clearlake has the largest population center in the county at nearly 16,000 residents, and has the bulk of the county's retail shopping. Grab some fishing gear or other sporting goods at Big 5, find pretty much anything you can think of for your stay in "the country" at Tractor Supply, or visit the many general retail options at Burns Valley Mall, Clearlake Shopping Center or Walmart.

Clearlake is home to three cannabis dispensaries and a variety of related businesses that focus on cultivation, distribution, and even manufacturing of cannabis products. If that's your thing, drop in at DM Compassion Center, Lakeside Herbal Solutions or Triple C Collective to see what they have to offer.

Kelseyville, a friendly country town, is one of Lake County's prized gems. Visitors and residents are drawn here every day because they love to experience that downtown country friendliness and charm that is the essence of Kelseyville. Downtown Kelseyville is settled at the western base of Mt. Konocti which is one of Lake County's most recognized and picturesque icons. In addition there is the agricultural countryside and vistas that consist of rolling hills, vineyards, pear, walnut and olive orchards that add rural delight to the area. The downtown ambience is found in the historic street lamps, pear trees, wooden quilts that hang from buildings and the charming shops, wine tasting rooms, craft brewery, tavern, special lodging and eateries.

Kelseyville is a special destination due to a very connected community that gets involved in the area businesses, schools, churches, service groups, events and activities. Community members take pride in the town's historical sites, recreation, lodging, dining, and shopping.

Kelseyville has many special events throughout the year. The longest running event is the Kelseyville Pear Festival which has celebrated

This wonderful mountainous area affords fantastic views of Clear Lake and its north shore. Swimming, fishing, boating, and other water sports are popular in Soda Bay (named for the bubbling soda springs offshore) because the bay is sheltered from wind by the promontory of nearby Clear Lake State Park. Some resorts are family-style offering RV spaces and rental boats; some are known for their dog-friendly policies. A new resort has surfaced offering upscale cottages (8) which can be utilized for retreats, family reunions, weddings, etc. A small market and a coffee shop offer nearby convenience.

Richmond Park Bar & Grill (located on the shore below Soda Bay Road) offers dining, RV spaces and fuel, dock space for those who arrive via the lake, and live entertainment most weekends.

A long standing attraction in this area is Konocti Harbor Resort, long known as a full service resort. Closed in November 2009, the resort was purchased in early 2018 and will be re-opening in the spring of 2020 after extensive restoration and remodeling. Families will once again enjoy those vacation experiences everyone seeks. The resort will also feature full conference facilities and an indoor concert venue.

The Riviera Hills restaurant with adjoining tennis court and swimming pools is located on a hilltop with spectacular views of Clear Lake and the mountains across the lake - a beautiful backdrop for great dining and a wonderful facility for weddings, receptions, and events, or for just enjoying the view.

Located on the north end of Lake County is the charming community of Upper Lake. Established in 1854, the pioneer town was at the end of the stagecoach line which carried affluent visitors from the Bay Area to chic mineral springs resorts to "take the waters." When that fad ended, the town continued to attract businesses in the timber trade.

Major renovations occurred in 2010, including Victorian-style street lights, a welcoming town arch and an historic town clock. A new generation of shopkeepers, innkeepers, and restaurateurs has sprung up. Today, the restored Tallman Hotel provides an elegant and romantic lodging experience and has become the anchor for the town, along with the Blue Wing Saloon. A stroll down Main Street reveals a variety of gift shops carrying unique and local goods, antiques, Americana and art.

Lucerne and Nice are two lakeside communities along the north shore of Clear Lake on State Highway 20, the major east-west thoroughfare in Lake County. Long, beautiful stretches of shoreline are shaded by large pepperwoods and giant oaks, and spectacular redbud shrubs bloom throughout the area in springtime. Several resorts and campgrounds offer visitors a place to stay, and public beaches, parks, and harbors provide many opportunities to enjoy the lake. The hotel recently became home to New Paradigm College. NPC is offering programs and events dedicated to the regeneration of local ecology, community, culture and economy.

With the steep Bartlett Mountain Range as its backdrop, the lakeside town of Lucerne is often referred to as "the Switzerland of America" with terrain and sweeping views reminiscent of the Alps. The town of Nice was named in June 1871 after the small town of Nice, France. The historic 1928 Lucerne Hotel on seven scenic acres provides a grand landmark overlooking the lake.

In the community of Lucerne, as part of the Lucerne Promenade between State Highway 20 and Clear Lake, the new Third Street Pier area provides visitors opportunities to enjoy a view of the north bay of Clear Lake and Mount Konocti. A favorite of travelers to Lucerne is the oldest franchise restaurant in Lake County, Foster's Freeze.

include natural earth building, a kayak launch, picnic tables and indigenous plantings. It is also one of the best locations to watch the annual Clearlake Oaks Fireworks Display on July 3, 2020. Community members and businesses raised money to purchase the island, which was planted with rescued cattails. Volunteers also pitched in to build an adobe entryway kiosk and bench using simple natural building techniques and local clay.

Clarks Island also is a stopping point for the Rattlesnake Island Water Trail, one of eight kayaking trails which highlight unique aspects of the geology; culture and wildlife of Lake County, allowing paddlers to enjoy beautiful scenery while learning about the environment.

AN HISTORIC SMALL TOWN

Historic Lower Lake is located at the southeastern end of Clear Lake where two major Native American trails crossed. Founded in the late 1850s, the town soon became the center of commerce for the region. Lake County was created out of the northern portion of Napa County in 1861. Lower Lake vied with Lakeport to become the county seat, succeeding in winning that distinction from 1867 to 1870.

The town features some of the oldest buildings in Lake County and prospered in early years from nearby mining of sulfur, borax, and quicksilver. The first jail in Lake County, a stone structure of just one room, is said to be the smallest in the United States. It is California State Historical Landmark #429.

The Lower Lake Historic Schoolhouse Museum, built in 1877, served as a schoolhouse until 1935. Due to the hard work of a grass- roots organization, the schoolhouse was restored and reopened in 1993 as a fine museum. The building has a distinctive Mansard roof, remodeled in 1906 after the great California earthquake damaged the bell tower. The 16-foot-tall ceilings and nine-foot windows give the museum its true historic character. Displays include a schoolroom, Victorian parlor, gems and minerals, and Native American and pioneer artifacts. The upper floor auditorium serves as a venue for cultural and community events.

Other historic sites in Lower Lake are the Pioneer and Lower Lake Cemeteries; and Anderson Marsh State Historic Park, just north of town, which features a ranch house, archeological sites, and nature trails. The Tuscan Village on Main Street has been approved for rebuild after an arson caused fire destroyed it in 2016. This destination location will include a winery, tasting room, retail and event center, a restaurant, a microbrewery, and a bed and breakfast.

Lower Lake offers hometown shopping with a variety of businesses, including coffee shops, BBQ, pizza, wineries, antique stores and a nationally known candle business. Memorial Day Weekend features Lower Lake Daze with a parade and festival. Lower Lake offers visitors an opportunity to truly step back and "stroll around" enjoying history in rural America.

The Hidden Valley Lake subdivision is truly a unique place to own a home. Just north of Middletown, the main entrance is on Highway 29 in the southwest corner of Lake County. The surrounding area offers many of the amenities of city living, such as excellent schools, hospital, police and fire protection, and cultural activities, but still provides the many benefits of living in a community located in a more rural setting. Two shopping centers adjacent to the community provide a market, restaurants, and other shops and services.

Hidden Valley Lake offers something for everyone—whether a young family looking for a place to raise children, a retiree interested in playing golf or fishing, or simply a person looking for the good life at a reasonable price. The only way to truly appreciate the community and all that is has to offer is to take a tour and see for yourself.

Commanding spectacular views of the lake valley from the banquet room and the golf course valley from the pool area, the hilltop activity center is one of those rare places where it is a joy just to be there. The building, with its long entry trellis, lighted parking lot, and attractive post-and-beam architecture, was designed as a restaurant and banquet facility by the original developers. The facility includes a large kitchen, banquet room with adjoining outdoor deck, bar, dance floor, and restrooms, and is used for banquets and special occasions.

From April to September, a monthly Concert on the Green takes place at the Hidden Valley Lake Golf and Country Club. For more information, see page 46 or go to www.golfhvl.com.

Middletown began as a stagecoach stop midway between Calistoga and Clearlake and became a town in 1870. It retains its old-fashioned western charm while embracing the viewpoints of a small, but diverse population.

Middletown's unique gift shops, antique stores, toy store, and nurseries are anchored by Hardester's Market, since 1943, newly rebuilt in early 2020. View and purchase local art and ceramics at the Middletown Arts Center and gallery.

Relax with a leisurely massage at one of the inviting day spas or beauty parlors. Visit the historic Harbin Hot Springs Retreat Center where you can soak in spring-fed pools, enjoy a variety of bodywork modalities, and experience a "digital detox" as you unplug from the modern world.

Local wine tasting includes tasting rooms in town, the biodynamic Beaver Creek Vineyards, and the historic Langtry Estate and Vineyards.

Middletown is the place to stop for food as well, boasting old-fashioned breakfast places, several Wi-Fi-capable coffee and tea shops, delicatessens, a brew pub, a restored drive-in and sit-down Mexican, American, Thai, and Chinese cuisine.

Overnight accommodations are available at the Eagle and Rose Inn, the Backyard Garden Oasis B & B, or Twin Pine Casino's beautiful, rustic lodge-style hotel with its restaurant and nightlife.

Just south of town, Calpine's Geothermal Visitor Center offers fascinating interactive displays explaining how geothermal energy is generated locally, using steam from deep within the earth. A picnic area and facilities for meetings and community events complete the center's offering.

A senior center, library, and tree-shaded park with a gazebo and picnic tables grace the east side of Highway 29 just south of the center of town. Across the street, Middletown's Gibson Museum & Cultural Center features both permanent and changing exhibits on the history of South Lake County in the town's original 1930 public library, now beautifully restored.

Middletown also is home to a variety of denominations, including Baptist, Catholic, Methodist, Seventh-day Adventist and community churches, all with warm, welcoming congregations.

Special events in Middletown include westernthemed Middletown Days, the third full weekend in June, with a parade, dance, barbecue, and rodeo. First Fridays Art Walks occur May through September. Christmas in Middletown is a small-town event held on the second Saturday of December that brings out the community to celebrate the season. Visit www.middletownareamerchants.com for more information.

No matter how you experience Middletown, you're assured of a friendly greeting and smalltown hospitality. No parking meters, no crowds, no stress-- only a charming town nestled just the other side of beautiful Mount Saint Helena from the Napa Valley. Stop in for a smile!
